

Please leave New Jersey's DoNotCall regulation alone. In these times of government interference, I believe you have better things to do than overturn New Jersey's regulation.